MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM : Lyle L. Miller
Acting Legislative Counsel

SUBJECT : House Select Committee on Assassinations Staff
Visit to Mexico City, 30 May 1978

1. (U) Action Requested: None; for information only.
2. (S) The House Select Committee on Assassinations staff plans to visit Mexico City to interview individuals in connection with their investigation into the death of President John F. Kennedy.
3. (U) The Committee is sending four staff members to Mexico City. They are:

Gary Cornwell, Deputy Chief Counsel
Harold Leap, Investigator
Dan Hardway, Researcher
Edwin Lopez, Researcher
4. (S) This team is scheduled to arrive in Mexico City from Houston via TIA 983, on 30 May for a four to five day visit. They expect to contact the Mexican Government Attorney General's office to seek assistance in locating Mexican citizens for interviews. They have asked the Agency to assist in locating other individuals, and we have forwarded their request to the Chief of Station, Mexico (see attached).
5. (S) Of the individuals requested, Charles Flick is a former employee and Ramon-Joseph Alvarez Durant formerly operated a DDO photographic surveillance site. A third individual was recently requested. He is Robert Zambernardi, a former TSD officer who retired in 1965, listing American Embassy, Mexico City as forwarding.
